++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Staying rather cold and showery, hill snow.

This Evening and Tonight:

Clear intervals and showers at first. Thickening cloud will bring outbreaks of rain from the southwest this evening. Then the rest of the night will see rain and hill snow at times, perhaps lower levels over North Argyll, drier later. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Saturday:

A bright start but generally cloudy with occasional showers, with snow becoming more confined to the higher hills. Rather cold and breezy. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Rain expected for a time on Sunday, mainly across the south. Mostly sunny on Monday, light rain in west later. Early cloud and rain on Tuesday then dry, sunny.
